

Lab task3:

1. A user defined function named `insertarray()` that receives an integer array, no of elements, inserting position and inserting value. Now write a code that inserts element into any position of the array.
2. A user defined function named `deletearray()` that receives an integer array, no of elements, deleting position . Now write a code that deletes element from any position of the array.
3. A user defined function named `bubble()` that receives an integer array and No of elements. Now write a code that sorts increasingly of the array elements.