

Lab task6:

1. Write a user defined function named `string_insert()` that receives a string and insert string into the specified index number.
2. Write a user defined function named `string_delete()` that receives a string and performs delete operation.
3. Write a user defined function named `string_replace()` that receives a string and performs replace operation.
4. Pattern matching