Lab task4:

1. Write a user defined function named selection() that receives an array and sort the elements.

2. Write a user defined function named binary() that receives sorted array and search any data from the array.